

Information in accordance with article 13 of the legislative decree no. 196/2003

Dear Sir/Madam

The legislative decree no. 196/2003 (Italian data protection code) provides for the protection of persons and other subjects in the processing of personal data. In accordance with the law your data will be handled correctly and confidentially by us. In accordance with article 13 of legislative decree no. 196/2003 we would like to inform you that:

The Casale di Buccole di Salvatore Falzone & C. S.a.s. with its seat in Migliano (PG) 06050, Italy will employ data obtained from you for the sending of mailings and circulars. The data will be processed electronically for this purpose and stored. The distribution of your data is optional. Your data will not be passed on to third parties or distributed, as far as requests for catalogues are concerned.

Mr Salvatore Falzone is responsible for data processing.

In accordance with article 7 of legislative decree 196/2003, explained fully below, at any time:

Legislative decree no. 196/2003, article 7 – Right of access to personal data and other rights

1. The person concerned has the right to receive information as to whether data are available regarding him or her, even if these data have not been stored: furthermore he or she has the right to receive these data in a comprehensible form.

2. The person concerned has the right to access information about

- a) the origin of the personal data
- b) the purpose and the method of processing
- c) the system applied, in the case of the data being electronically processed
- d) the most important data for the identification of the legal bearer, the persons responsible and the name of the representative according to article 5, paragraph 2
- e) the persons or categories of persons, to whom the personal data may be passed or the names of representatives in the country, persons responsible or instructed who are in a position to request knowledge of them

3. The person concerned has the right

- f) to request the updating, amendment or, if interested, the supplementing of data
- g) to demand that illegally processed data be deleted, made anonymous or blocked; this applies also to data collected and later processed for non-essential purposes
- h) to have confirmation that the persons to whom data is sent have received the information contained in steps a) and b), i.e. the origin, purpose and processing method of the personal data, also regarding their content, as long as this does not prove to be impossible or the costs do not prove to be unreasonably high in comparison with the right exercised.

4. The person concerned has the right, either fully or partially

- a) to oppose the processing of personal data concerning him or her for legitimate reasons, even if these data are for collection purposes
- b) to oppose the processing of personal data concerning him or her if this processing leads to the sending of advertising material or direct selling or is for market research or trade information.
